WHEREAS, the Mayors of South Dakota's 308 Cities and Towns serve the people in an outstanding and dedicated manner; and

WHEREAS, these public servants have very limited resources with which to provide the additional and improved services which the people of South Dakota demand and deserve; and

WHERRAS, the future of South Dakota depends upon the continued efficient and effective administration of local government:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim January 26, 1972 as and urge all South Dakotans to join in commending the elected officials of our cities and towns for their unselfish and dedicated service.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this 17th day of January, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-two.

Richard F. Kneip
